What's in a Name?

City names come in lots of languages. Can you match these capital cities with their native tongue?

- |                    |   |
|--------------------|---|
| BATON ROUGE | (A) From the Dakota Shia, meaning talkers  |
| CHEYENNE    | (B) French for Red Stick, a hunting marker |
| LITTLE ROCK | (C) Spanish for Holy Faith                 |
| PHOENIX     | (D) From the Hebrew Shalom, for peace      |
| SALEM       | (E) A Greek mythological bird              |
| SANTA FE    | (F) English, perhaps a big boulder nearby  |

State of Confusion

If I start in Columbus, stay there one day, take a train to Raleigh, fly to Carson City, stay there two nights, then drive to Boise, in what state am I?

FINISH

Oh, the Places You've Been!

Color in the states you have visited.

Amazing States

Find your way across the country without crossing any state lines.
